

My name is Genevieve T. Abayan, 29 y/o, female, born on Nov. 21, 1978 in Catbalogan Samar Philippines. I live in 174 Lipata, Paranas, Samar(my Hometown). My Father is Pablo S. Abayan (65y/o), and my Mother is Nena T. Abayan (63y/o). They are both from Samar Region, Philippines and both Educator. They came from a poor family but to their efforts and hardships, they finished their degree with honors. I'm the third child, and I had 4 brothers, 1 sister. My two eldest brothers have their own family & siblings already, the rest are not yet. My family are Roman Catholic & active in many affiliations in the church like DMI, K OF C, CFC, etc...

I took up my Primary in Wright Central Elementary School in Paranas, Samar, since my Kindergarten up to Grade Six. I graduated March 1989 and with honors in every grade. My Secondary in St. Mary's College (Sacred Heart College before), Catholic School, in Catbalogan, Samar in our city, 45 minutes far from our home. I graduated March 1994 with an Athletic Award because I used to compete games in different Schools (Volleyball, table tennis, Track & Field). Then my College was in St. Jude College, Dimasalang, Manila and took up the Bachelor of Science in Nursing. In my Nursing Profession I had my Clinical Experiences and Affiliating Agencies in a big Institution & Hospitals in different places in Manila like Phil. Orthopedic Center(Ortho), Veteran Memorial Medical Center(O.R.), Phil. National Red Cross(First Aid Training, CPR), Quezon City Medical Center(ICU, Pedia Ward), East Avenue Medical Center(Gastro Ward, Medical&Surgical Ward), Ospital ng Maynila(D.R., NICU), San Lazaro Hospital(Communicable Disease like AIDS, Leprosy, HIV, etc), Lung Center for the Phil., Children Medical Center(O.R. Pedia), Jose Reyes Medical Center(EENT, OPD), National Center for Mental Health(Psychiatric Nursing), Manila Health Dept.,(Community Health Nurse, Lying In) and St. Jude Hospital. I graduated March 1999 and took up the Nursing Board Exam on Nov.28&30. Then after two weeks I got my result with the passing grade of 75%.

My Friends called me EVEV or GEN for short. I'm friendly, down to earth, easy to be with, flexible, with sense of humor, responsible & God fearing. I like ice cream a lot, love to eat spicy foods, like reading suspense books & true to life story. Love to sing and dance too.

As of now, I'm working @ St. Joseph Home for A.D. (Nursing Home) in Taiwan as a Staff Caregiver. I handled 6-7 patients everyday. I assisting the elderly with bathing, grooming, dressing and all his/her daily activities in daily living, prepare his his/her mealtime and help to feed them, monitoring sleeping pattern, employing passive and active exercises, giving medication instructed by the head nurse, Doing light housekeeping like mopping, dusting, wash bowls & utensils. Perform certain procedures like NGT insertion, suctioning, wound dressing, HGT monitoring, we performed CPR, and companionship with them, Tracheostomy cleaning. In all of this, I experienced to have patience in dealing with patient at all times because it's not easy to deal with them coz they are demented and sometimes they hit or spunk you. Appreciate their ability. Love your work as you love yourself no matter how hard and difficult it is coz I believed that someday their will be reward for that.

I can say I am a good Caregiver, because I do love my job whatever it is. Aside from the fact that I'm graduated in a medical course and based on my experiences as a caregiver, I can do emergency cases or first Aid at home. I had lots of experience in the hospitals handled critical cases in OR, and Emergency in which I can render my patient at home or any institution...

I want to go to Canada because theirs a lot of opportunity, a good place to live, they offer good salary, no discrimination what is your job, western people are smart and kind. My expectations to my future employer hopefully she/he is easy to be with, understanding, have a kind heart, and will like me as her/his caregiver...
